3. With regard to the personal property, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n), the United States forthwith shall publish at least once in a newspaper of general circulation notice of the United States' intent to dispose of the property in such a manner as the Secretary of Treasury or the Attorney General may direct, and notice that any person, other than the defendant, having or claiming any legal interest in the subject property must file a petition with the Court within 30 days of the publication of notice or of receipt of actual notice, whichever is earlier.

This notice shall state that the petition shall be for a hearing to adjudicate the validity of the petitioner's alleged interest in the subject property, shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury, and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in the subject property, and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought.

The United States should also, to the extent practicable, provide direct written notice to any person known to have alleged an interest in the property that is the subject of the Preliminary Order and Judgment of Forfeiture, as a substitute for published notice as to those persons so notified.
